

HOLMAN ASSHOLES FLAME...

It has recently come to our attention that 2 of us attended an "Exec Comm" (what the hell is that?) meeting last night. The rest of us decided to forgive them. This meeting dealt with the objections to the new room assignment policy used by Scot Krueger; and resulted in a new policy. We are totally outraged by the overt effort by Runkle (I am not a crook) 1st to control house politics. God is back (Time, April 7). It is unfortunate that this ~~Bullshit~~ apparently has resulted in the resignation of our Judcomm. It is even more unforgivable that this power-crazed (power corrupts, absolute power corrupts absolutely) clique appointed Mark (beer hunter) Olen to do the room assignments. Well fuck my butt. I think I know, I mean, er yes but it's all wrong, that is I think I disagree.

We believe that room assignments are too important to be determined by a set policy. Judcomm is an elected position because there are human factors that affect his decisions. The Judcomm should be receptive to the feelings of the residents. The room assignments as done by Scot Krueger should be changed to follow guidelines acceptable to the rest of the house. This should be done by someone elected to the position of Judcomm by the house residents.

We object to the appointment of Mark Olen^{or anyone else} to the position of room assignment chairman because he was not elected. Furthermore he has stated that he will do the assignments by blind application of the guidelines (we would prefer the Book-of-the-Month Club computer).

Holy fucking shit, someone might think that we take ourselves seriously; the drugs must have worn off. We have 47 alternate proposals. We have selected 9 at random for your consideration.

17. Fix the elevator in Lobby 7.
24. Write your Senators now before it's too late, for more info call SARD at dl 6174.
3. Nixon Now.
69. Replace all house officers by the 2nd place finishers in the elections.
42. Use Baker's appeals court to magnify our problems.
- H2. We want our chandelier back.
37. Call an emergency meeting of DormCon.
714. Elect the Holman 1st Committee on Housing and Urbane Development (HFCHUD).
